

About CEWA

CEWA represents not-for-profit employers in the non-government sector of Western Australia. This is a significant sector which supports and enhances the lives of hundreds of thousands of people each year. The services provided by CEWA members cover many areas including:

- Family and Community services
- Mental Health services
- Alcohol and other drug services
- Housing and homelessness support
- Financial counselling services
- Community legal services
- Disability services
- Prisoner rehabilitation and reintegration services
- Domestic violence services
- Aged care services
- Representative and advocacy bodies
- Migrant services
- Health services

CEWA currently has 132 member organisations who in turn employ in excess of 24,000 staff in the Western Australian not-for-profit community services sector.

CEWA's Key Objectives

Improve the pay and conditions of workers in the not-for-profit community services sector

Ensure the sustainability of community services

Support members in accessing appropriate resources, information and advice to maintain their services

Engage in advocacy to strengthen the sector's relationship with all levels of Government.
